The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod LCMS Stewardship Ministry – July 2026

Go ... Sell All You Have? Originally published July 2023

“What must I do to inherit eternal life?” asked the rich young ruler. Jesus said, “You know the commandments.” And he replied, “All these I have kept from my youth.” And Jesus said to him, “One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me” (Luke 18:18–22).

When we hear this story, this question comes to mind: is Jesus speaking to us also, or only to the rich young ruler? In other words, is Jesus telling us to sell all that we have and give it to the poor?

As good Lutherans, we answer, “No!” But why? Why should we not sell all that we have and distribute it to the poor? The simplest explanation is this: if we sold everything we have, our wife and our children would be neglected. In other words, to sell everything we have and give it to the poor would ignore, even abandon, those whom God has placed in our care. Our money, everything we have, is not to be used solely for the church. But that doesn’t excuse us from using our money for the purpose God intends.

Everyone has three stations in life, three spheres in which we live and are to be of service to our neighbors. These stations are the church, the family and society. We are members of all three of these by birth. We are born into the church by water and the Word of God, and our duties to others in the church arise from our Baptism into the church. We are born into a family, and our duties to others stem from our birth into that family. Finally, we are born into society, which is simply a further extension of our birth into our family. The duties we have toward other members of society come from either our own birth or the birth of others into the same society.

All that we have and all that we are ought to be pressed into service for the church, the family and society. If we were to sell all we have and give only to one, the other two would be neglected, and we would falter in fulfilling our duties.

So, consider your life and all that you have in light of these three stations. You pay taxes to support and help those in society. You save for college for your children, and provide food, clothing and shelter for the members of your family.

But the station that is usually thought of last is the church. Since the needs of the family and society are more immediate, the church is often given what is left over. This is not how it should be. Rather, we are to give of our first fruits, from off the top, the best, even as Abel gave the best of his flock.

This requires forethought. It means that you sit down and make a plan of what you will give from the beginning. It means sticking to it even when it seems that there are other more immediate and pressing things.

And this is all the more necessary now as we enter into periods of time where giving is low due to high unemployment or where restrictions on meeting in church limit opportunities to give. If we love God and His gifts of forgiveness given through the Means of Grace, which we receive at church and only at church, then we will support it, just as we love our country and our family. For all that we have and all that we are is given to us by our gracious God. He spared no expense for us and our salvation. He gave up His Son to death so that our sins are forgiven, and we will live. What's more, He provides for all that we need for this body and life. And our lives in this world, among these three spheres of church, family and society are to mirror the generosity of the one who gave us life in all three at birth.

Don't let the church, your divine family, be an afterthought or even ignored. It is nurturing you, bringing you up in salvation through Word and Sacrament.

Will There Be Enough?

Will there be enough? Will my resources get me through? So often in life, we ask questions like these. We wonder if we'll have enough in the bank account to cover the bills. We wonder if we'll be able to cover tuition costs for our children, whether in childcare or college. We wonder if our retirement funds will be adequate. Will there be enough?

Over against our anxious concern, Jesus' multiplication of loaves and fishes that fed 5000 is a story of abundant provision. This is the only miracle of Jesus that is found in all four Gospels:

- Matthew 14:13-21 \(Matthew 14:13-21 ESV - Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand - Now - Bible Gateway\);
- Mark 6:30-44 \(Mark 6:30-44 ESV - Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand - The - Bible Gateway\);
- Luke 9:10-17 \(Luke 9:10-17 ESV - Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand - On - Bible Gateway\);
- John 6:1-13 \(John 6:1-13 ESV - Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand - After - Bible Gateway\).

Take a moment and read through these brief accounts. Each is a little different and has a unique perspective from each Gospel writer in conveying this amazing work of Christ. John's account is the only one that tells how a little boy willingly shared his lunch of five loaves and two fish that he had brought. Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, is recorded as saying to Jesus: "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are they among so many?" (John 6:9). That about sums it up for us, too, doesn't it? So often in life, we see only what we do not have. We have to learn again and again that little is much in the hands of Jesus. We see only the end, but it is there – at our end – that it is just the beginning of what Jesus can do.

We live in a culture of abundance. Just walk down any aisle in the grocery store and there is a dizzying number of choices for just about every food and drink imaginable. This truth was discussed between me and an overseas missionary family who came to visit. They live and serve in another part of the world, but it is not a place of food insecurity or need. In speaking with them about their visit, one of the things they commented on about life here in America was all of the choices in the grocery store available to us. They said they could understand how this might lead to "decision paralysis" – a dilemma of our modern world. Too many choices! But even in the abundance that surrounds us in this country, there can be great need. Food deserts are real – all too real – for many. A food desert is an area or region where people have limited access to healthy and affordable food. Sometimes these are in urban areas, but they can also be in others areas as well. If you're not familiar with what a food desert is, a brief overview can be found at Food deserts: Definition, effects, and solutions \(medicalnewstoday.com\).

Even in a culture of abundance, there can be scarcity. That, of course, can lead to problems. We may be prone to see life through the lens of scarcity rather than abundance. But scarcity can teach us valuable lessons and cause us to become better stewards. My parents were products of fourteen years of war in Liberia when scarcity was a very real thing. Necessity caused people to cut back, look for inexpensive solutions, and make do with what you had. There is wisdom in this for us today! One of the things that I really like about the account of Jesus' feeding of the 5000 comes in the next to last verse of Mark's telling of this: "And they took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and of the fish" (Mark 6:43). Nothing was wasted! All of those leftovers from what Jesus had miraculously multiplied would be put to good use feeding people the next time. The end of one meal became the beginning of another. In the compassion of Christ our Savior, who abundantly provides for the needs of his people, we are moved to manage God's gifts in such a way in order to make the best possible use of them. That is good stewardship, then and now.

Whether we are surrounded by abundance or scarcity, whatever we have, bring it to Jesus. If our resources are meager and lacking, bring it to Jesus. If our resources are more than we need for ourselves, bring it to Jesus. Whatever we have, bring it to Jesus and place it in his nail-pierced hands. Truly, little is much in the hands of Jesus! As He fed 5000 and more people with five loaves and two fish, so He is not limited by what we have or do not have. Nothing is too hard for the Lord (Jeremiah 32:17). If this same Jesus so loved us that He would willingly go to the cross and give his very life there for our salvation, won't He also give to us what is needed day by day? And so we pray, "Give us this day our daily bread..."

As we consider our own situation in life, whether it is one of abundance or scarcity, let us remember the words of Paul the apostle who encourages us to have the mind of Christ – to see Christ in our neighbor and be Christ to our neighbor:

So, if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father (Philippians 2:1-11).

Will there be enough? In the abundant provision of our God, we give thanks – thanks for every gift and blessing from his hand. The words of the psalmist remind us: "The eyes of all look to You, and You give them their food in due season. You open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing" (Psalm 145:15-16).

Garage Sale Update

Gloria Dei, once again, participated in the Annual NEighbors Garage Sales. By adding Thursday as an additional sale date, we got a jump start on sales. The sale was held at Mary Piper's garage. A big thank you to Mary for the use of her space! This was by far our biggest sale in terms of donations! There were so many great donations that the garage was FULL and new items were added daily. The items that were not sold were boxed up and donated to local charities and thrift stores.

Despite the Friday rainy weather, the sale raised nearly $2,300. Fortunately, the rain didn't discourage our shoppers. 😊

Thank you to everyone who contributed their time and energy to the success of the garage sale. It was an enormous undertaking! It truly takes a village!

The three-day sale required significant effort from many individuals, who all came together to make the sale a success and work as a team. Thank you to all the volunteers who generously gave their time and efforts in setting up, pricing, moving items, staging and organizing, moving tables out in the morning and back in in the evening, working the sale, feeding the workers, and for all the donations, whether big or small. Thank you also to all the various neighbors who stopped by to lend a hand and more importantly shop.

The sale was both a successful fundraiser and community event. Many shoppers visited multiple times, finding new treasures each time. All the items sold at the garage sale were donated by members, friends and neighbors. Thank You!

THE LUTHERAN CHURCH—MISSOURI SYNOD

Pray For Us Calendar

LUTHERAN SCHOOLS — JULY 1-15

The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS) School Ministry serves as a national voice for Lutheran schools, upholding the standards of Christ-centered schools that are academically strong and respectfully operated. Nationwide, there are 1,992 LCMS schools, which include 1,127 early childhood centers, 778 elementary schools and 87 high schools.

Remember God's work in Lutheran schools as you pray:

- 1. for the children attending Lutheran schools, that their eyes, ears, hearts and minds would be open to God's Word.

- 2. for Lutheran school teachers, that they would correctly divide and deliver Law and Gospel to students through real-life applications each day.

- 3. for Lutheran school principals, who lead people to passionately embrace the witness our schools provide to the community. Pray that pastors, principals, directors and teachers would work together in God-pleasing unity.

- 4. for pastors, who champion the Kingdom work happening in our schools. Pray that pastors would be excited to be an integral part of their school's ministry and the teaching of the children.

- 5. for the ability of Lutheran schools to serve every child in their care. Ask that the Lord would provide the means to help schools serve children who have disabilities, who have experienced trauma or who come from families with limited resources.

- 6. for Lutheran schools that are struggling to fill empty seats. Pray that God would revitalize their ministries, energize their staff members and bring more children through their doors.

- 7. for parents who support our Lutheran schools with their time, talents and treasures. Give thanks for their dedication to the mission of the school.

- 8. for daily opportunities for our teachers and staff to show God's mercy, love and forgiveness both inside and outside of the classroom. Pray that God would maintain our ability to practice our faith in Lutheran schools.

- 9. for church members who tell the story of their Lutheran school, that their recommendation might lead more students through the school's doors.

- 10. for the many non-Christians and exchange students who are coming to our schools. Pray that God would work through the Gospel that they will have faith in Jesus.

- 11. for first-year teachers, that they may apply their gifts to demonstrate grace and mercy. Pray that God would give them strength and patience.

- 12. for our early childhood centers that introduce young families to the saving love of Jesus. Pray that they are a faithful witness to the littlest of God's children and their families.

- 13. for courageous Lutheran schools willing to take calculated risks that will result in significant rewards for students. Give the leaders of these schools wisdom in their decisions.

- 14. for comfort and healing for school faculty and students during times of injury, illness and loss.

- 15. for God to raise up wise and gifted leaders who are willing to serve in administrative roles at Lutheran schools.

CAMPUS MINISTRY — JULY 16-31

The challenges to Christians on our nation's college campuses are increasing exponentially. On practically every campus, objections are increasing to the biblical worldview, Christian doctrine, traditional ethics and moral practices. The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod's (LCMS) campus-ministry arm, LCMS U, aims to encourage, support and help students, faculty and staff in their response to these challenges so they can boldly bear witness to Christ.

Remember God's work through LCMS U as you pray:

16. for the 200-plus LCMS U chapters around the country, that they would receive the support they need to effectively reach out to America's college students.

17. that more congregations and individuals would become involved with their local LCMS U chapters or start new ones.

18. for the growth of LCMS U on urban campuses and at community colleges, two fertile mission fields. Pray that the Lord would open doors to the spread of His Word in these places.

19. for all the dedicated staff and volunteers involved in campus ministry, that God would energize them for their work and use them to plant seeds of faith that will continue to grow.

20. for students starting their first year of college, that they would find a church to attend,

Christian friends and make good decisions while living away from home for the first time.

21. for the parents of college students, especially those who have an empty nest for the first time. Pray that they would find joy and contentment in the midst of life's changes.

22. that Lutheran college students would be bold witnesses to their faith in Jesus Christ, even when faced with pressure from peers and professors.

23. that young people would hunger for the certain truth of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and not be deceived by the half-truths and lies of Satan.

24. for the 800,000-plus foreign students studying at American colleges and universities. Many come from countries where the Gospel is not freely preached. Pray that their time in the U.S. would provide the opportunity for them to learn about Jesus.

25. for the international students who came to faith while studying abroad. Ask the Lord to provide support so that they can continue to grow in their faith after they return home.

26. for busy college students, who are pulled in many directions with the demands of school, work, friends, family and other activities. Pray that they would make God a priority by setting aside time for worship, Bible study and Christian service.

27. for the development of campus-ministry programs at institutions of higher education around the world.

28. that God would bless and guide the work of all students involved in mission work and volunteer opportunities both at home and abroad. Pray that this time would be a blessing to them and others.

29. with thanksgiving for a new school year. Pray that students and campus-ministry workers would return refreshed and with renewed dedication.

30. for recent college graduates, that they would find gainful employment as well as a church home where they can learn about God's holy Word in all of its truth and purity.

31. for all students, that God would protect them and provide people to share with them the Word of God.
